Office of Student Involvement

A. Student Activities and Organizations

The University supports a variety of student organizations as a belief in their co-curricular value, their role in the general education of students, and their being an asset to the University community. Opportunities for student involvement in student organizations include student government, academic, honorary, athletics, religious, special interests, cultural, international and service groups. Student organizations play an important role in the total University life and must, therefore, exercise judgment and responsibility in the planning and implementation of their activities. This judgment and responsibility extends to individual members and officers of organizations. Organizations and individuals must also observe certain regulations for rational and effective operation in the University community.

1. Student Organizations

   a. Benefits of Involvement

      The University of Central Florida (UCF) recognizes the importance of active and effective student organizations. Research clearly shows that those students who choose to become involved in some form of organized activity do better academically, persist through graduation, and gain valuable career related and life skills, and experience greater personal development when compared to those students who choose not to get involved. These benefits are even more enhanced for those students who take on leadership roles within student organizations.

   b. The Ability to Organize

      The University encourages students to organize themselves and to pursue personal and/or professional interests. Further, the University supports the choice to form and affiliate with an organization and strives to remove administrative barriers that would hinder such involvement.

   c. University Oversight

      The University has the responsibility to exercise appropriate oversight over student organizations and their related activities. This includes the official registration of all student organizations through the Office of Student Involvement as well as oversight for the appropriate time, place and manner of all activities, events, etc. Policies and procedures related to the conduct of student organizations are presented below.

2. Registration of Student Organizations

Any student association, group, or organization other than the Student Government Association whose objectives are consistent with the organizational goals and mission of the University is eligible for active registration. Registration is permitted and completed upon the recommendation of the Student Government Association, the review and concurrence of the Office of Student Involvement, and the approval of the Associate Vice President for Campus Life or designee. No student organization may be set up so that any individual benefits monetarily from its existence. At the beginning of each semester, and following organization elections, all registered student organizations must file an update report with the Office of Student Involvement. The report must include a current listing of the organization's membership and officers, the signature of at least two current officers and the faculty/staff advisor(s), and the organization’s contact information. Organizations shall annually attend a mandatory orientation. These minimum requirements may be reviewed for waiver only under extraordinary circumstances as deemed appropriate by the University in its sole discretion.

i. During fall and spring semesters, a student leader must be continually enrolled as an activity and service fee-paying half-time student (currently defined as at least six (6) credit hours as an undergraduate degree-seeking student or a post-baccalaureate student, or at least five (5) credit hours in a graduate degree-seeking program or at least three (3) credit hours if registered for dissertation or thesis hours). The appeal should address the causes for ineligibility and reasons for believing that the problems have been resolved. The Eligibility Appeals Board is made up of students (3) appointed by the Student Body President and faculty (1) and staff (2) appointed by the Director of the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities. The board elects their chairperson, who votes only in case of a tie. The Eligibility Appeals Board shall resolve the issue within four weeks. The Eligibility Appeals Board is the deciding body that, upon hearing the appeal may waive the eligibility requirements for that semester. Students may only BE GRANTED one appeal per criteria every two consecutive semesters (excluding summer).

The Eligibility Appeals Board may review the academic record of students in those positions of leadership or responsibility. The decisions of the Eligibility Appeals Board are final.

The Student Government Association has established eligibility requirements for selected positions within student government. These requirements and governing procedures are presented in their election and eligibility statutes, which are made available to any student upon request, as well as to all candidates filing for office.
